

Super Visa

C H E C K L I S T

If you're a parent or grandparent of a Canadian citizen or permanent resident and wish to visit Canada for an extended stay, the Canadian Super Visa is the perfect option. Here's a helpful checklist to guide you through the Super Visa application process:

- Eligibility Assessment:
Ensure you meet the eligibility criteria, including being a parent or grandparents of a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.
- Travel Intentions:
Clearly state the purpose of your visit, including the intended duration of your stay in Canada.
- Letter of Invitation:
Obtain a letter of invitation from your child or grandchild residing in Canada. The letter should include details of their citizenship or permanent residency status, along with an invitation to visit.
- Proof of Relationship:
Provide documents to establish the relationship between you and your child/grandchild, such as birth certificate or marriage certificates.
- Proof of Sufficient Funds:
Demonstrate that your child/grandchild meets the minimum income requirements to sponsor your visit.
- Insurance Coverage:
Obtain private medical insurance coverage for a minimum of one year, showing a minimum coverage amount as per Super Visa requirements.
- Passport:
Ensure your passport is valid for at least one year beyond your intended stay in Canada.
- Passport Size Photographs:
Provide the specified number of recent passport-sized photographs as per the requirements.
- Biometrics (if applicable):
Schedule and attend biometric data collection at a designated visa application centre.
